

Personal Care Assistant, Cotgrave 15 hours pw (SOLOCVN)

£8.50 per hour.

I am a 55 year old lady living in the Cotgrave area.

I am an extremely independent lady who enjoys reading and listening to music.

I have a fairly happy disposition despite my disability. I have my own mind and do not like bossy people as I feel uncomfortable when being told what to do.

I have a passion for protecting stray or sick animals as I volunteer for an animal charity and my own cat is a rescue cat. The successful candidate will be required to assist me with Getting up in the morning via either a hoist or Banana Board and taking me into the shower, providing personal care, preparing my breakfast ensuring I have drinks to hand throughout the day. They will also be required to provide domestic support and to help me care for my cat.

The successful candidate will have a good personality with a great sense of humour, they must have a caring nature with previous care experience and have the ability to think ahead. Experience in using a tracking hoist desirable, but training can be provided.

The position is for a morning call at 7am until 8.15am Mon-Fri, Lunchtime and Evening Calls. There will also be hours for social on a Monday, Wednesday and Friday (tbc).
