

Personal Assistant, Night Carer and Domestic Assistant Required – Near Gainsborough (Ref: SOLOKLM)

I am an easygoing (most of the time!) woman living at home with my husband and four young children, so as you can imagine, it is a very busy, hectic household. I am looking to recruit a Personal Assistant, Night Carer and a Domestic Assistant.

For the Personal Assistant role you will be required to assist me with, administering my medication, cooking, errands and assisting me when out and about. The hours are Mondays & Wednesdays 2pm – 8:30pm and Saturday mornings 9am – 12 noon, 16 hours per week in total paid at £8 per hour. Car drivers are essential for this post, as you may be required to drive me about in my adapted vehicle.

For the Night Carer role you will be required to assist me with, personal care, administering my medication and other duties. The hours are 1 night sleep in per week 8pm – 8am (8pm – 10pm at £8 per hour, 10pm – 8am £45 flat rate). Due to the personal nature of the role, females only please (The employer has claimed an exemption under the Equality Act 2010).

For the Domestic Assistant role you will be required to do household cleaning duties, for example sweeping, mopping, cleaning toilets and bathrooms, ironing, and all other aspects of cleaning. I am quite particular and like things done properly and to a high standard. The hours are Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays 9am – 12 noon, 9 hours per week in total paid at £8 per hour.

For all roles I'm looking for reliable individuals who can help to create a relaxed living environment. Preferably someone with a good sense of humour and who isn't fazed by hard work and who likes children. Applicants must be honest and trustworthy and patient as these qualities are very important to me.
